

ASEAN FILM FESTIVAL OPEN WITH THE THAI MOVIE -- HEART ATTACK

(R-L) Ambassador Alex G. Chua with Ambassador Cherdkiat Attakor of Thailand and Madame Marie Marla Chua

Nairobi, Kenya, 28 August 2019- Ambassador Alex G. Chua and the Philippine Embassy in Nairobi personnel and their families attended the film screening of “Heart Attack” the entry of the Embassy of Thailand in Nairobi to the 2019 ASEAN Film Festival on 27 August 2019, at the Alliance Francaise de Nairobi.

Ambassador Chua welcomed the Thai film as the first of the four film screenings from member countries of the ASEAN Nairobi Committee. “We appreciate events such as these where we can support our ASEAN brothers and promote the different ASEAN cultures, which in this case is film.”

Ambassador Cherdkiat Attakor explained that the movie “Heart Attack” is about finding the correct balance between work and love, and listening to the demands of the body and soul.

The ASEAN Film Festival which is one of the ASEAN Nairobi Committee initiatives for 2019 highlights the dynamic film industry of each ASEAN Country and emphasizes the vibrant relations, cooperation and camaraderie of the ASEAN community in Nairobi under the chairmanship of the Philippines.
